Dear Ms. Serra:

I appreciate your nice letter of June 21 and we are delighted to be moving forward with your May, 1994 conference on "Functional Diversity of Interacting Receptors".

We appreciate your generous offer of 15 free copies of the Annals that will result from the conference, and we would like to exercise our option to purchase a maximum of 50 additional copies at the pre-publication price of $35.00 each. It may be that we will wish additional copies at 50% of full publication price at a later date. I enclose the required order form at this time.

We also appreciate your generous offer of four (4) free registrations for the conference. Members of our scientific staff will certainly avail themselves of this opportunity and we will submit this form to you prior to April 1, 1994.

You have indicated that the magnitude of our contribution assures that we will be listed as "a major contributor" to the conference. Since your estimated costs for this venture are $90,000 and since we have subscribed support in the amount of $50,000, I would request that we be named as the Major contributor and that all other sponsors be listed in a lesser category. In short, our interest in this conference generated over a period of the last 2 or 3 years, is sufficient that we would like to be acknowledged as the lead sponsor. I hope that this is possible.

Thank you again for your courtesies. With warmest regards and all good wishes, I am,

Sincerely,

James F. Glenn, M.D.
Chairman of the Board
